

2020 SUMMER READING
7th – 12th Grades

Each student entering 7th through 12th grade should read at least three books. These books should include the book listed below for your grade, and the rest should be selected from the Summer Reading List in the student’s grade range. Parents, please acknowledge that the books have been read by signing the back of this page.

Summer Reading Questions: Read the books listed next to your upcoming grade. As you read, answer the questions about your assigned book(s), and bring your written answers to class the first day of school. Include quotations from your readings that demonstrate your answers. Be prepared to discuss your answers.

Grade in August 2020	Required Book Title ISBN #	Summer reading questions for required book:	Additional Summer Reading
7 th	The Golden Fleece by Padraic Colum ISBN 0689868847	1) Who or what controls nature? 2) Who or what will determine whether or not Jason’s and the Argonauts’ quest will be successful? (include 2-3 quotations in your answer to each question)	Two other books from the reading list
8 th	King Arthur and His Knights of the Round Table by Roger Lancelyn Green ISBN 0141321016	Please answer the following questions in complete sentences: Who are the main characters? What is the setting? How does the book begin? From whose point of view is this story told? Explain why you think this point of view is best for this story. What is your favorite part in the novel? Why? Do the temptations of each character match their weaknesses and if so, how?	Two other books from the reading list
9 th	To Kill a Mockingbird by Harper Lee ISBN 0060935464	Karen Prior writes that courage is "measured not by the risk it entails but by the good it preserves." As you read, keep track of the courageous stands that take place throughout the book. Once you finish, describe two separate courageous stands. Describe each in light of these two questions: 1) What risks were taken? 2) What good was preserved? Each stand should be described in one good paragraph. Please type and print the two paragraphs responses and bring them to school on the first day of class.	Two other books from the reading list
10 th	Till We Have Faces by C.S. Lewis ISBN 978-0062565419	Read page 351 very carefully. What words do you think are missing from Oruel’s last entry: “Long did I hate you, long did I fear you. I might...”? Why? Reflect on the symbolism of Oruel's face causing her last words to be smudged out. Give me 2 quotes from the book that support your theory.	Two other books from the reading list
11 th	Perelandra (ISBN 978-0743234917 or 074323491X) "Learning in Wartime", and "Imagination and Thought" by C.S. Lewis	For Perelandra (respond in one paragraph): What about Lewis's vision of paradise on the planet Perelandra is most like your own desire for paradise? For the essays (make a list for each essay): What principles from these essays are important for understanding the medieval world and our own attempts at a classical education?	One other book from the reading list
12 th	Lord of the Flies by William Golding ISBN 9780399501487	Quote 2-3 passages related to the sin nature of man. In the story, how do people try to cope with the problems that arise as a result of man’s sin nature?	Two other books from the reading list
