Uniform Overview

Since its inception, The Ambrose School has been committed to uniform clothing for its students. This policy has four fundamental benefits.

First, uniforms prevent the application of subjective standards of dress in the classroom. Parents, students, and teachers know that the uniform meets the school's standards of modesty. Other classical schools that operate without uniforms have commented on the amount of time their boards spend on issues of inappropriate attire. Uniforms allow our board and staff to focus on academic concerns.

Second, uniforms are a positive influence in the school. The Ambrose School places particular value on a disciplined learning environment. A child learns that when he is wearing an Ambrose uniform, he will be engaging in studious activity. Teachers have noted the advantage of uniforms in the instructional setting. This environment makes it easier for The Ambrose School to complete its primary task—the education of children.

Third, uniforms encourage a community spirit, where individuality is sacrificed for the good of the group. This removes the potential distraction of what clothing other students are wearing. This also sets our group of students apart from other schools, encouraging each student to operate as a part of a body, much like an athletic or military group identified by common dress.

Finally, uniforms usually decrease the cost of clothing. Our uniforms are rugged, high-quality uniforms that can take wear and tear. Parents can typically purchase two to three sets of uniforms to last throughout the school year. These can often be handed down to other children. If parents are interested in purchasing or selling used uniforms, The Ambrose School has a uniform consignment store across the hallway from the office where parents can sell and/or purchase used items.
